

Commission Disclosure Consent

Our Role

Established for over 150 years, Caffyns plc helps customers to find their next new vehicle. We are committed to upholding a high standard of customer service and proud to be one of the UK's largest automotive dealer networks. Finance is available on every vehicle we sell facilitated by commercial arrangements we have with lenders.

Further to the Initial Disclosure Document and Status Disclosure Statement provided to you on ____/____/____ Caffyns is a credit broker and as we are not acting independently we are required to disclose any commission we receive from lenders with whom we arrange finance agreements with. You can find copies of the Initial Disclosure Document and Finance Commission Disclosure Document on our website: www.caffyns.co.uk.

The information below is intended to provide you with transparency regarding our commercial arrangements with the lender. It sets out, amongst other things, the amount of commission we will receive. You are able to choose to continue with your application at this stage, or you may wish to explore other funding options. If you would like to continue to apply for the finance deal please sign this document to confirm you acknowledge and consent to the commission payment we will receive from the lender as detailed below.

If you have any questions, please discuss them with us before you sign the document and do not sign or proceed with your application for finance if you have concerns or any information detailed below is missing or incorrect.

Your Acknowledgement and Consent

By signing the below, you confirm that:

- You understand that Caffyns are not acting impartially or on your behalf and there may be more favourable finance options available from other lenders.
- We have relationships with a number of lenders which could include preferential terms such as a requirement to submit an application to them first or exclusively.
- You have been informed of the commission payment that will be paid to Caffyns by the lender and you agree to Caffyns receiving that commission.
- You understand that you are able to seek independent financial advice prior to entering into a credit agreement with the lender, and to seek alternative finance arrangements, if you wish.
